Coach Core Recruitment

This year Glasgow Sport will employ young people who have the potential of becoming the future sports coach. Initially as part of our recruitment stage, young people will take part in an informal group interview, with promising applicants being invited to our getting to know you days. Those who demonstrate commitment and self-development will then be offered year-long Modern Apprenticeship. The apprenticeship will allow them to complete their SVQ Level 2 in Sport Coaching whilst working alongside experienced coaches. Their 30 hours working week will see them earning a Modern Apprenticeship wage over the course of the year.

Who can get involved?

Age: 16 – 21 years old.

Interests: Enthusiasm for volunteering and/ or participating in sport.

Location: Must live within the Glasgow City Council boundary.

Qualifications: No formal qualifications are required. You must not already be in education or employment.
